

Score Polo

An all-round winner

A saddle stool without equal? Yes, that's the new Score Polo. This saddle stool is not just extremely comfortable, it is literally and figuratively for all-round use!

Seating in motion

The Score Polo is ideal for people who sit a lot but need to be stimulated to move more while sitting. It promotes an active sitting posture so you can easily keep moving. That improves your breathing and blood circulation and gives you the energy to concentrate for longer. The Score Polo is the ultimate saddle stool for those who alternately bend forward and backward during their work. The flexible base enables you to move literally in all directions.

There is Score Polo for everyone

The Score Polo is ideal for home and office work and is suitable for many workplaces. And because the customer can choose from different seat widths, heights, upholstery and colours there is always a Score Polo that suits him or her on all fronts.

This makes the Polo special

the saddle-shaped seat provides grip on your own sitting behaviour
